Claims 5-9 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

In claim 5, lines 8-9 recite "used in conjunction with a secondary nail pulling detail". It is unclear if the "secondary nail pulling detail" is intended to be a positive limitation of the claim. The recitation appears to be merely an inferential inclusion. In claim 9, lines 12-13 there is no proper antecedent basis for "said plurality of staple pulling fingers". Claims 5-9 are therefor indeterminate of scope.

Claims 1-4 are allowed.

Analogous pry bars are shown in Smith and Hreha.
